6 QUALIFICATIONS OF CONTESTANTS

In accordance with Article 4: Qualification of Contestant of the WTF Competition Rules, the contestant must meet all following requirements:

- Holder of the nationality of the participating team*
\ In compliance with Olympic Charter, a competitor who is a national of two or more countries at the same time may represent either one of them, as he may elect. However, after having represented one country in the Olympic Games, in continental or regional games or in world or regional championships recognized by the WTF, he may not represent another country unless at least three (3) years have passed since the competitor last represented his former country. This period may be reduced or even cancelled, with the agreement of the NOCs and the WTF. Regardless of the timing of disclosure of this issue raised by any party, the WTF may deprive the qualification place obtained by pertinent competitor (if any) unless agreement among all concerned parties set in forth in Olympic Charter has been reached.*

- One recommended by the pertinent national taekwondo association that is recognized by the World Taekwondo Federation
  - Contestant at the age of at least 15 years old**
\* Those athletes, who were born on December 31, 1996 or before, are eligible to compete in 2011 WTF Oceania Qualification Tournament for London 2012 Olympic Games.*
  - Holder of Taekwondo Dan certificate issued by the Kukkiwon or the WTF***
\** Kukkiwon Poom / Dan grade and number should be written in the entry application form. A copy of the Dan certificate should be enclosed when registering for accreditation. In case a contestant has applied for a Kukkiwon Dan certificate but has not received it yet, a copy of the Dan application form and the remittance certificate sent to the Kukkiwon must be enclosed when registering for accreditation. Please refer to the Kukkiwon Website (www.kukkiwon.or.kr) for more information.*
  - WTF Global Athlete License (GAL), if available (not mandatory) ****
\*** WTF Global Athlete License(GAL): WTF Council approved at its meeting in Tashkent on Oct.6, 2010 Global Athlete License Program, under which all athletes to participate in all WTF-promoted championships except WTF World Para-Taekwondo Championships should hold WTF Global Athlete License (GAL) beginning in the 2011 WTF World Taekwondo Championships Gyeongju. Please take note that it would be convenient to identify your athlete if there is a GAL no. All questions about and application for GAL should be sent to Mr. Justin Tenbeth, WTF GAL Project Manager in WTF Lausanne office, at licence@wtf.org.*

7 COMPETITION RULES

- 7.1 WTF Competition Rules] and [Standing Procedures for Taekwondo Competitions at Olympic Games] in force as of the first competition day of the competition respectively.
- 7.2 According to the Article 6.4 of WTF Competition Rules, at least four (4) athletes should participate in each weight category to validate the competition results. In the event that less than 4 athletes have competed in one weight category, the winner(s) will not be considered as qualified, and the pertinent qualification place(s) will be given to Tripartite Commission Invitation Place (Wild cards)

8 METHOD OF COMPETITION

- 8.1 Single elimination system will be applied throughout the tournament without repechage.
- 8.2 Additional match between the two losers of semifinal will be held to determine the 3rd placed winner.

9 CONTEST TIME

- 9.1 2 minutes x 3 rounds with 1 minute break (sudden death round to be held in case of tie after the 3rd round)

10 QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

- 10.1 An NOC/NF may participate in the Continental Taekwondo Qualification Tournament as long as (1) the weight categories in which athletes are entered in the Continental Qualification Tournament are not those where their athlete have already qualified in the WTF World Taekwondo Qualification Tournament; or (2) the number of qualified athletes of the pertinent NOC do not exceed the maximum quota of two (2) men and two (2) women athletes.
- 10.2 The first three (3) ranked athletes in the weight categories will qualify their NOCs a place each for Olympic Games. Total twenty four (24) athletes will qualify their NOCs a place each for Olympic Games through WTF World Qualification Tournament.
- 10.3 The two finalists will qualify their NOCs regardless of the result of the final match. The 3rd place will be determined by an extra contest between the two losers to the finalists. The winner will be the 3rd and the loser will be the 4th. The loser to the 1st place at quarterfinal will be classified as the 5th place, while the loser to the 2nd, 3rd and 4th placed athletes will be all classified as the 6th place.
- 10.4 If an NOC qualified through the Pan Am Taekwondo Qualification Tournament relinquishes a quota place or has not confirmed the use of the qualified place(s) within two weeks (2) from the moment receiving the allocation letter from the WTF, it will be allocated to the NOC of the next highest placed athlete in the pertinent weight category as long as the quota places for the pertinent NOC do not exceed the maximum quota mentioned above.
- 10.5 In the event that any of the qualified contestants was found to have committed a doping offence that constitutes a violation of any of the provisions of the Anti-Doping Code of the World Anti-Doping Agency and/or other appropriate anti-doping codes ("Anti-Doping Codes"), the next highest ranked contestant(s) in the pertinent weight division will qualify his/her NOC a place.

10.6 The NOC of an athlete who has committed an anti-doping rules violation will lose the quota place obtained by the athlete. The maximum number of quota places for that NOC shall be reduced by the corresponding number of athletes who committed an offence.

■ Olympic Charter Rule 51 & Bye-law to Rule 51

Regarding the Olympic Games, to maintain the unique visual presence of the Games, only the Olympic Committee of the Olympic Games (OCOG) Marks/Look and where approved the manufacturer's mark are permitted. All other marks/look cannot be displayed unless approved by the IOC. Therefore, the logo of the International Sport Federation cannot be applied on the products.

The related parts with the manufacturer's identification in Rule 51 and its Bye-law of the Olympic Charter, are as follows:

1. The IOC Executive Board determines the principles and conditions under which any form of advertising or other publicity may be authorized.
2. No form of advertising or other publicity shall be allowed in and above the stadia, venues and other competition areas which are considered as part of the Olympic sites. Commercial installations or advertising signs shall not be allowed in the stadia, venues or other sport grounds.
3. No kind of demonstration or political, religious or racial propaganda is permitted in any Olympic sites, venues or others.

Bye-law to Rule 51

1. No form of publicity or propaganda, commercial or otherwise, may appear on persons, on sportswear, accessories or, more generally, on any article of clothing or equipment whatsoever worn or used by the athletes or other participants in the Olympic Games, except for the identification - as defined in 8 below - of the manufacturer of the article or equipment concerned, provided that such identification shall not be marked conspicuously for advertising purposes.

- 1.1 The identification of the manufacturer shall not appear more than once per item of clothing and equipment.
- 1.2 Equipment: any manufacturer's identification that is greater than 10% of the surface area of the equipment that is exposed during competition shall be deemed to be marked conspicuously. However, there shall be no manufacturer's identification greater than 60 cm<sup>2</sup>.

- 1.3 Headgear (e.g. hats, helmets, sunglasses, goggles) and gloves: any manufacturer's identification over 6 cm<sup>2</sup> shall be deemed to be marked conspicuously.
- 1.4 Clothing (e.g. T-shirts, shorts, sweat tops and sweat pants): any manufacturer's identification which is great than 20 cm<sup>2</sup> shall be deemed to be marked conspicuously.
- 1.5 Shoes: it is acceptable that there appear the normal distinctive design pattern of the manufacturer. The manufacturer's name and/or logo may also appear, up to a maximum of 6 cm<sup>2</sup>, either as part of the normal distinctive design pattern or independent of the normal distinctive design pattern.
- 1.6 In case if special rules adopted by an International Sports Federation, exceptions to the rules mentioned above may be approved by the IOC Executive Board.

Any violation of the provisions of the provisions of the present clause may result in disqualification or withdrawal of the accreditation of the person concerned. The decisions of the IOC Executive Board regarding this matter shall be final.

The numbers worn by competitors may not display publicity of any kind and must bear the Olympic emblem of the OCOG.
