EUROPEAN TAEKWONDO
CHAMPIONSHIPS
MANCHESTER 2012

Dear President/Head of Team,

On behalf of the British Taekwondo Control Board and GB Taekwondo, I have the honour and privilege of inviting you and your Team to the 2012 European Championships in Manchester.

This prestigious event has added meaning for us all within our sport. It will provide an excellent opportunity for our athletes and staff as they prepare for the upcoming Olympic Games in August 2012. Alongside that, we look even further ahead to the upcoming IOC vote in 2013 that will decide on the core sports for the 2020 Olympic Games.

I believe that this event will enable us to showcase our sport in a way that will energise the media and captivate the public, so as we can maximise our chances in securing the vote in our favour.

Manchester is a vibrant city eager to welcome and impress overseas visitors and to share in British culture at its finest. You can all expect the same high level of hospitality and efficiency that is always on show at our British International.

As ever, I look forward to welcoming the European WTF family to Manchester, I know that the strength of our friendship will help to deliver a fantastic event for our athletes.

Adrian Tranter

Chairman

British Taekwondo Control Board
