Mersin

Mersin is located in the Mediterranean Region of Southern Turkey. The population is 1 million 647 thousand 899 people according to the census of 2010 and it has approximately 16 thousand square kilometres surface area.

Mersin makes important contributions with its own dynamics to Turkey's important initiatives in every area; it has important potential in tourism as well as commerce and economics. Providing important gains to the different cultures that it hosted; today, Mersin comes through the second fast urbanization process. Development of Mersin continues at a great pace with its modern port, free zone and all the commercial and industrial organizations carrying its own unique value.

Large number of ancient sites, 321 kilometres coastal strip, its green nature with citrus gardens smelling beautiful in each different season and with rooted cultural events, Mersin provides potentially important contributions to culture and tourism of Turkey.

The Tirmil Hill in the east and the Yumuktepe Mounds in the west mark the boundaries of city centre. These mounds prove that there had been a settlement in Neolithic and Chalcolithic periods in this area long before the establishment of the Mersin.

Known history of this region is connected to Luvi, Kizzuwatna, Hittite, Asur and Babylon Kingdoms histories. The region dominated by Hittite, Urartu, Asur, Babylon, Lydia, Persian, Seleukos and Roman Empire.

In the period from 7th century to the Ottoman conquer; Arabians, Abbasi, Egyptian Tulunoğulları, Seljuklians, Mogols, the crusaders, Memluks, Ramzanoğulları and Karamanoğulları had taken control of the region.

From the 16th century onwards, Mersin and its neighbourhood were added to the Ottoman land.

Mersin is located in one of the most fertile lands of Turkey, in Çukurova Region, and stands out with features such as green plains, wide valleys, blue rivers and lakes, mountain chains, historical caves and contains different physical structure.

4. COMPETITIONS, DATES AND VENUES

4.1. Competitions

Taekwondo competitions in the frame of the 2013 Mersin XVIIth Mediterranean Games include the following classification of events.

Men	Women
-58 kg	-49 kg
-68 kg	-57 kg
- 80	-67
+80	+67

4.2. Dates and Venues

Taekwondo competitions of the 2013 Mersin XVIIth Mediterranean Games will be held between 21-23 June 2013 at the "Edip Buran Sports Hall" (Yenişehir/Mersin).

5. CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE COMPETITION WILL BE HELD

The Taekwondo competitions will be held on condition that at least eight (8) Countries for Men category and six (6) Countries for Women category register no later than the deadline for entries by number registration.

If the number of entries received by 19 March 2013 (24.00 hrs GMT+2) is lower than the above-mentioned number, the Chairman of the ICMG Technical Commission or his representative assisted by one (1) or two (2) members of such commission appointed by the President of ICMG and in the presence of Sports Director of OCMG 2013 will withdraw the events not fulfilling the requested minimum quota. This will be made in Mersin on 7 May 2013 (24.00 hrs GMT+2).

After this date, the OCMG 2013 shall notify the relevant National Olympic Committees by fax or e-mail about the possible cancellation of any event.

Once the events are confirmed, regardless of the number of participants, competitions of the confirmed categories will be held and winners will be awarded with medals.

6. COMPETITIONS RULES

Taekwondo competitions of the 2013 Mersin XVIIth Mediterranean Games will be held in accordance with the WTF rules in force as of 1 January 2013, excluding the special dispensations by the ICMG.

Any case not covered by this regulation shall be decided as follows:

- General cases will be settled according to ICMG rules;
- Technical questions will be settled according to ICF rules.

7. TECHNICAL ORGANIZATION

Turkish Taekwondo Federation (TTF), under the supervision of the WTF Technical Delegate, is responsible for the technical organization and management of the Taekwondo competitions to be held within the scope of the 2013 Mersin XVIIth Mediterranean Games.

7.1. Special Provisions Concerning Competitions

Any dispute possible to occur before or during the competitions will be settled by the Competitions Management in accordance with the ICMG and WTF regulations in force as of 1 January 2013, excluding the special dispensations by the ICMG. In particular, the organizational details of the Taekwondo competitions will depend on the number of participating countries.

7.2. Drawing of the Lots

Technical Meeting and draw will be carried out one day before the competition. Draw will be realized according to the order of athletes for each weight category.

Representative of participating countries must be present during the drawing of lots. In the event that the representative doesn't participate in the draw, another representative may be appointed. However, the absence of representatives during the Lots will not change the result of the Lots.

The range of the draw can be changed only if the team representative/executive decides.

7.3. Weigh-in

The weigh-in process for each category will be carried out on the day before the competition and according to the WTF rules. The athletes will be weighted only once during the Tournament.

8. COMPETITION VENUE AND TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT
