

07 – 08 – 09
NOVEMBER

Dear friends,

The youth has the future! That is why this event is of major importance for our organization! We have started for many years with this event for Cadets. Also in the near future, ETU will start with a new elite event for the best young athletes in Europe. Exciting times lay ahead of us.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Organizing Committee of the event and host Albanian Taekwondo Federation. They already have done an amazing job in the preparations with the ETU event team, and I am convinced that they will deliver an amazing event which will be remembered by all participants.

I wish all teams the best of luck! May the best athlete win and most of all, may all the teams have an amazing experience of the Albanian hospitality, may all teams gain they information needed to be well prepared for the Olympic Games and above all, may our fundamental principle of friendship through Taekwondo be advocated by all!

Sakis Pragalos
President
European Taekwondo Union

Dear friends,

It is my honor to invite you and your teams to participate in 2024 European Cadets Championships going to be held in Tirana, Albania, on 7th - 9th November 2024.

Our Organizing Committee aims to perform you an amazing and high-quality competition that will remain in the best memory, and we assure you that all the participating teams will experience our great hospitality and sports passion of Tirana. We are truly excited to prepare the competition areas in order to see the performance of the best European athletes, coaches and referees. We are working incredibly hard, side by side with our great ETU partners, experiencing the very best cognitive collaboration, and hoping we will approve the given confidence.

Waiting for the ultimate action to start, I look forward to welcome you in Tirana!

Eljon Kolziu
President of Albanian Taekwondo Federation
